

C. H. GRIFFIS RELEASED FROM PRISON

Bribery Alleged In Securities Department

COLUMBUS, O., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Possibility of a grand jury inquiry into alleged bribery involving an employee of the state securities department was indicated today when Attorney General Crabbe turned over to Prosecuting Attorney John R. King of Franklin county, evidence which has been gathered by the attorney general's department upon instructions of Governor Donahay.

The attorney general did not disclose any of the evidence which has been gathered or indicate whether it tended to bear out the rumors which had come to the attention of the governor concerning the securities department.

The request that an investigation of the securities department be made by the attorney general was made by Governor Donahay November 10 last year. On that date the governor wrote Attorney General Crabbe in part as follows:

"Information has reached me which casts grave suspicion of bribery upon an employee of the securities division of the department of the state, the same arising out of the application for certification of the stock of the Pennock Coal Company."

"The matter is of such gravity that I want elicited the entire truth relative to the matter and with the prosecution if the facts warrant such action. On the other hand, if the employee is innocent that fact should be established in justice to him."

In the letter the governor said he stood ready to render all assistance possible to the attorney general in making the inquiry and also gave the attorney general authority to investigate "anything else of criminal nature in this or any other state department."

The story investigated by Attorney General Crabbe was to the effect that the president of the Pennock Coal Company, a Pennsylvania corporation, paid the employee of the securities department twenty-five one hundred dollar bills to have the coal company's stock certified for sale in Ohio, after he had tried in vain to have it certified through legitimate negotiations with the department.

In a letter to the governor advising him that he had transmitted all evidence to the prosecutor, King, Mr. Crabbe points out that the governor had not given the attorney general authority to appear before the grand jury and that he could go no further than to transmit his evidence to the prosecutor for any action he might take.

Little Dusty Shop, Where Fortune Came
ST. LOUIS, MO., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Dusty is fast collecting in the narrow window of a little store down on Biddle street.

Residents of the ghetto district passing by stare at the ruddy-pencilled sign on the door: "Closed on account of death."

Jefferson Wall, the storekeeper, is dead. Behind him he left the little shop and a fortune of $300,000.

At the age of 32, Wall started business here with a peddler's pack. That was 35 years ago. He bought a small shop, made money, and invested it in tenements, apartment houses, and other real estate.

They say of Wall down at Thirteenth and Biddle streets that he never raised his cents a dollar, and that he sold goods at cost from his shop during the last 15 years. He never gave to charity, holding it made people lazy, until his later years. He worked from 8 to 6 every day, and transacted all his dealings from his dusty little shop. Few knew of his large fortune.

Wall cared little for surroundings. His dress was careless. His goods were packed indiscriminately into bins. But Wall knew where they were and prices are the important things down on Biddle street.

Newspaper To Be Given Same Treatment As First Class Mail

WASHINGTON, January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Beginning Friday newspapers will be accorded the same treatment in the mails as letters and other first class matter by an order made public today by Postmaster General New. "The order," said Mr. New, "means much to the American public. It is one of the most important and far-reaching steps in post-office history. It is for the benefit of those who desire to have their newspapers as early as possible."

"This should keep both the city and rural population in closer and quicker touch with their several fields of activities."

Newspapers will be made up in separate sacks, plainly labeled with the word "newspapers." If there are only a few copies of newspapers at the point of dispatch, they will be placed in pouches with first class mail or in separate sacks even though the sacks are only partly filled. The order stipulates that newspapers shall not be mixed with parcels post at any point in their dispatch from the publisher's office until the delivery to the addressee.

Women Are Attending School Of Democracy
CLEVELAND, O., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Democratic women from seven middle western states here for their "School of Democracy" were continuing today their efforts to form a plan to bring victory to their party in 1924. The intricacies of party organization, methods of getting information to the voters and all the elements that go to make up a national campaign were being explained to them by a group of speakers led by Mrs. Halsey Wilson, national educational director.

Dismissal of the "school" for the day was to be followed in the evening by addresses of a more particularly political nature. Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, of Missouri, national vice chairman, having announced that she would take up the cudgel of democracy in an interpretation of the Teapot Dome oil lease investigation. Former Senator Alben Barkley of Ohio was scheduled to address the women following a banquet.

Opening sessions of the gathering yesterday were marked by onslaughts directed at the Teapot Dome incident. President Coolidge's "advertised virtues" and Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin. The oil lease controversy was touched upon by several speakers. Mrs. Blair declared the political qualities of "caution, thrift, and reticence" might well be taken, as faults rather than virtues and that the president's caution in handling the Teapot Dome case was not "viewed with favor by many Republicans," and Mrs. Gertrude Bowler, of Wisconsin, stated that La Follette was losing strength because of failure to fulfill campaign promises.

To Demand Probe Of Ship Board
WASHINGTON, January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Democratic leaders in the house announced they would attempt to have a special committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the shipping board.

Representative Garrett, the Democratic leader, said it was planned to have Representative Davis, of Tennessee, a Democratic member of the merchant marine committee, introduce a resolution calling for the inquiry. Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, has been informed of the minority plan and has taken the position that if an inquiry is ordered the committee should have wide powers and authority to go back as far as it may desire into the Wilson administration in its investigation.

A resolution calling for an inquiry will be offered within the next few days, said Mr. Davis, who declared that assurance must be given by the Republicans that a majority of the committee members will approach the proposition "in earnest" and not be inclined to "white wash" present and past officials.

Use of Face Brick Increased 70 Percent
CINCINNATI, O., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Statistics show that in the last nine years the use of face brick for building purposes has increased 70 per cent. Douglas D. Stevens told delegates attending the 38th annual convention of the National Brick Manufacturers' Association, being held here. A brick building five years after its construction is worth more than when new, he said, because it takes that long for the brick and mortar to become thoroughly united into a unified mass.

Jonathan Post, East Williston, N. Y., automatically became president of the association, succeeding R. C. Burton, of Zanesville. Dr. W. F. Demuth, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, was elected third vice president.

Anderson Convicted Of Forgery; To Appeal
NEW YORK, January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Dry leaders today intimated that William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, convicted by a jury before Supreme Court Justice Tompkins last night of third degree forgery, probably would appeal the verdict before February 8, the date set for pronouncement of sentence.

Anderson received unflinchingly the verdict which was returned after a jury had deliberated an hour and forty minutes. With the consent of Assistant District Attorney Pecora, the president, held at $5,000 in which the dry leader has been at liberty since the indictment was returned, was continued.

Former Governor Charles S. Whitman, chief defense counsel, in his summation, declared that changes in the league's books, made at Anderson's direction, meant no loss to the league, while Mr. Pecora argued that the charges were made for income tax evasion and that the Federal and state governments and the league had been defrauded.

The charges on which the indictment was based, involved transfer of $4,400 from the salary account of O. Bertall Phillips, a collector for the league, to Phillips' expense account after it had been agreed that Phillips and Anderson were to "split" the former's commissions in excess of $10,000 annually.

Mr. Pecora's summation stressed Anderson's account that he had been given about $25,000 by a mysterious John T. King, which money had been expended in a league publicity campaign by an equally mysterious Henry Mann. He asserted the story strained credulity.

The reference statutory penalty for the conviction is five years in the penitentiary, but members of the district attorney's staff asserted first offenders some times were given six months sentences.

Interest in the case ran so high locally, that the verdict was announced last night in theatres during intermissions.

Butler Wins In His First Battle With Politicians
PHILADELPHIA, PA., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Prizefighter General Butler, director of public safety, has emerged victorious in his first encounter with a group of politicians, who sought to interfere in behalf of a police lieutenant demoted because of alleged inefficiency during the director's latest offensive against vice and crime.

In his terse and emphatic manner, General Butler yesterday told the politicians that he was boss of the police and that any sign of political interference would result immediately in his resignation and return to the marine corps. After a conference with Mayor Kendrick regarding the matter, the general announced today that the mayor had upheld his action. "The mayor's a good boy," he said. "He's right back of me in this rotten job."

Close political observers professed to see in General Butler's skirmish with the politicians the first move of some ward leaders to embarrass the new administration and there were predictions that further efforts to curb the director's activities would be made. Mayor Kendrick, however, made it plain that General Butler had a free rein in the conduct of his department.

OHIOAN FREED BY GERMAN GOVERNMENT, HUGHES TOLD

WASHINGTON, January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Cortina Hoover, Griffith, the American who attempted to kidnap Grover C. Bergall, in Germany, has been released from Prison by the German government. The state department was so advised today.

It is understood that the Berlin government acted after it had been informed of sentiment in the United States. Griffith will be returned at once to the United States. The state department's cable from the Berlin embassy merely reported the fact of his release, adding that he would take first available transportation from Germany to this country.

Attorney General Daugherty initiated the proceedings as a part of the government's prosecution of war time cases.

Walks 1,000 Miles To Care For Son

DETROIT, MICH., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Mary Hansen watches at the bedside of her son Joseph, here today, after walking more than 1,000 miles from Sioux Falls, S. D., to take care of him.

Three weeks ago, Mrs. Hansen received word that her son was ill "somewhere in Detroit." She started out on foot to come to this city and with the aid of motorists along the way, arrived late yesterday. Mrs. Hansen's eldest son was a lieutenant in the World War, and was killed in the Argonne Forest. American Legion posts and auxiliaries for this reason, she said, helped her along the way.

This is the second trip Mrs. Hansen has made on foot for her son Joseph. Some time ago she walked from Montana to Washington to appeal to the late President Harding in behalf of the young man when he was a prisoner in Leavenworth, Kas., Federal prison. She says she was a former resident of Michigan, Ohio, and knew the late president when he was learning the printing trade.

Dental Student Murder Victim

CINCINNATI, O., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—John A. Mazzola, 25 years old, a native of Panama, who was a dental student at the Ohio College of Dental Surgery of the University of Cincinnati, was found murdered here today.

Officials of the college say Mazzola's father is a wealthy merchant of Panama. Immediately upon learning of the murder, they communicated with Carlos Carbone, No. 11 Broadway, New York, who is the American representative of the elder Mazzola.

Mazzola's body was found on a lonely road in Norwood. Police say he was either drugged to the spot and murdered, or his assassin's waylaid him. His life was ended with a bullet fired into the back of his head. His body also had been slashed and stabbed repeatedly.

A roll of money was found in his pockets, indicating that revenge and not robbery was the motive for the crime. Mazzola was of Spanish extraction. He came to Cincinnati four years ago to take up the study of dentistry, and would have graduated next June.

Mr. Strawn conferred with the president and announced he would proceed immediately with his work. Organization matters will await the arrival of Thomas W. Gregory, who will conduct the prosecution jointly with Mr. Strawn. The only directions received from the president, Mr. Strawn said, were to proceed in accord with the executive's statement of last Saturday midnight. This statement declared counsel would be instructed "to prosecute these cases in the courts so that if there is any guilt it will be punished. If there is any civil liability, it will be enforced; if there is any fraud it will be revealed, and if there are any contracts which are illegal, they will be cancelled."

Modern Taxi Invades The Holy Land

JERUSALEM, January 30.—(By the United Press)—Pilgrims to Palestine must be prepared to find the Holy Land a little less of a shrine and more of a tourist resort than it used to be. The days of slow and laborious travel by caravan, sleeping in tents by night and sharing something of the ride and primitive life of the people are gone.

Before the war there was only one motor car in the country—one harmless Ford. Now Jerusalem is crowded with taxis, parked in front of historic gates. Automobiles have almost altogether replaced the camel and mule. Non-stop tourists dash about from Damascus to Jerusalem, from Bethlehem to the Sea of Galilee, dining, drinking and sleeping in modern hotels, and returning to host that they have "done Palestine completely in 48 hours."

Nevertheless travel by automobile is full of adventure. For the roads in many places run into deep ruts, pools and bogs. One such place is that near the gates of the Jordan associated with the Baptism of Christ. A disheveled traveler, Sir Martin Conway, describes his experiences at this spot as follows:

"We were driven by an Arab chauffeur, an individual easily excitable and liable to become reckless in adversity. His method was simple: When in doubt hang ahead and put your faith in Allah."

Allah was good to Sir Martin and his party, for they got through, much to the chagrin of a band of "local spectators who stood by ready to dig us out for a consideration."

SHOWMAN'S TRIAL NEARING END

Evidence Concluded And Arguments Being Made

Trial of William H. West, Cleveland showman, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, which started before Judge Thomas and a jury in Common Pleas court yesterday, swung into its final stage Wednesday afternoon when the taking of evidence was concluded and arguments of counsel commenced. The prosecutor, Skelton, opened for the prosecution and he was followed by Attorneys Mark Crawford and Louis M. Day for the accused. From present indications the case will reach the jury late today or early Thursday morning.

After the state had rested its case, soon after the morning session of court started, the defense started on its inquest and the defendant as the first witness took the stand in his own behalf.

After answering a number of preliminary questions West told in detail the business transaction with Charles O. Massa and others in May, 1923, in connection with their signing the $3,500 note. He told of getting into financial difficulties while his show was at Chillicothe on account of bad weather and that at the suggestion of C. O. Ferguson, of Portsmouth, who had charge of the show, he had charge of the show, he came to this city and made an appeal to Charles and John Massa for aid after relating his troubles to them. He declared that after he had discussed the proposition of raising enough money to move his show to Ashland, the Massa boys under took to raise the $3,500 needed under the promise of an offer made to John to take a position as financial secretary of the show at $15 a day, which he accepted, the witness said. He stated they went to the Ohio Valley bank and were given an undated note by H. B. Adams, the cashier, and then he said their efforts were directed toward getting as many endorsers on the note as possible, calling on several persons with the Massa boys during the following two or three days and which finally resulted in C. O. Ferguson's name being obtained, though the bank had refused the note with the other signatures on it.

West asserted that John Massa took charge of the money, and accompanied by C. O. Massa, and himself the money was immediately carried to Chillicothe in an automobile and used in paying back salaries due performers and other expenses incident to moving the show into Ashland.

The witness admitted that he accompanied the Massa boys when J. M. Baesman and Paul Stockham loan to him the money which was related to the signature of Thomas Ashpaw and George Corson, asserting that the latter two were induced to sign by the Massa brothers. West further denied any reference to the ownership of real estate in Chicago or elsewhere, that the show equipment at Chillicothe was worth $18,000 and unincumbered or that the advance sale of tickets for his exhibition at Ashland amounted to $17,000 or that he made any misrepresentations in any way to induce the Massa boys or others to sign the note, as alleged, and to which the Massa boys, Paul Stockham and J. M. Baesman had previously testified.

The defendant was asked numerous questions by his counsel in explanation of what transpired after the show reached Ashland and to which subsequent tie up through attachment proceedings instituted by C. O. Massa and which is still pending in the Boyd county courts, but this evidence was ruled out as incompetent by the court on objection of Prosecutor Skelton.

Will J. Hays and Carl Windel were called by the defense in an effort to show that they had refused to sign the note but they were not permitted to answer and H. B. Adams, cashier of the Ohio Valley Bank, was not permitted to testify in advising the Massa boys on the subject of whether or not they ought to assist West in making the loan.

When Thomas Ashpaw was called the state admitted that West had nothing to do with the witness signing the note and he was not permitted to testify, neither were C. O. Ferguson and Joe Liberty called to prove conversations.

At the opening of the hearing this morning the defense launched an attack against the indictment through a motion to arrest judgment on the ground that the indictment does not charge specifically and John Massa and other signers of the note, or any of them, relied upon the alleged false pretenses charged in the indictment, and by reason of said reliance were induced to and did become co-makers of the note. When the state rested an motion was introduced by the defense to direct a verdict for the defendant on the ground of lack of evidence in support of the charge, but both motions were overruled.

Witnesses for the state yesterday included John and Charles Massa, John Massa said West represented him to him in Chicago, and show property in Chillicothe worth several thousand dollars. He admitted taking employment with West at $15 per day.

Chas. Massa offered testimony regarding the alleged solicitation of funds by West, claiming that the showman represented to them that he had property in Chicago worth from eight to twenty thousand dollars, and that his show equipment, at that time in Chillicothe, was worth from three to four thousand dollars.

Several attempts on the part of West to raise funds here when he was in Chillicothe were related "broke" at Chillicothe, who said they by the Massa brothers, who said they did not enthrone over his request for $3,500.

Expect Trial To Be
Bitterly Contested

ATLANTA, GA., January 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Trial of the suit of Mrs. Onieanna de Bouchel of New Orleans, against Asa A. Chandler, Sr., Atlanta soft drink manufacturer, for $100,000, for alleged breach of promise, set for today in Federal district court, is expected to be bitterly contested. Attorneys refused to discuss the probable length of the trial but a number of witnesses have been summoned.

Mrs. de Bouchel charging in her petition that Mr. Chandler broke his engagement to marry her as the result of alleged information that two men had visited her in her room in a hotel at night during a conference to be held in Atlanta in October, 1919, seeks vindication of the alleged charges.

She stated that she asked Mr. Chandler to give her the names of informants, and that he refused.

Mr. Chandler in his answer said he did not make charges against Mrs. de Bouchel, but merely conveyed to her the information he had received. He stated he had refused to give the names of his informants because he did not want to involve any one who had been actuated by friendship for him.

Young People's Services Close Tonight;
Vote Will Be Taken On a New Minister

Tonight's meeting in the Sunday school room of the Second Presbyterian church will bring to a close the three days of special services for the young people of the church. The church meeting begins at 7:15 and the regular service for the young people does not start until 7:30. From 7:15 to 7:30 the congregation will meet to vote upon the calling of a new pastor. All young people of the church interested in this matter are urged to be in attendance when this important matter of business is discussed. The young people will occupy the main section of the Sunday school department.

At 7:30 the song service will begin, with Rev. J. C. White, master of his art, at the piano.

Following that, Mr. White will speak, and Mrs. White will deliver the closing message.

Last Night's Service

Last night, Mr. White spoke on "Who's Who?" the second of his series of addresses on Leadership.

Potential leaders as chosen, they do not choose the "job," the speaker said. "God calls men and women into positions of trust and leadership just as certainly as he called Moses or Elijah or David. He is constantly seeking leaders."

"One of the best qualifications for leadership in the world is Youth. When men have sometimes hesitated to trust immaturity, God has always capitalized the enthusiasm of youth. He demands consecration. Give him your talent—it may be one, it may be two, it may be five, or ten. No matter, give him what you have, and He will use you for great things."

Women And Affairs

Mrs. White, following the lead of her husband, spoke on the leadership of women in life.

The speaker emphasized the good and bad in woman's leadership. "See what a woman can do by the might of her influence, see what a wisp of a girl can do—behold, the maiden in the courtyard when Jesus was being tried. She crooked her finger at Peter, and said: 'Art thou not one of His disciples?' and the great apostle denied His Christ."

"This homely illustration of a woman's thoughtless rallery is true to life," Mrs. White continued. "The greatest force for good in the world is Christian womanhood. God is calling to young women to consecrate their lives to His service. He is calling to you."

Miss Bertha Blood sang "A Broken Heart," accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Paff, and the dedicatory service found young people consecrating themselves.

Indications are for a banner crowd tonight.

Gallia Street On The Square

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, women, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—To settle an argument, how many stories high is the skyscraper in Cincinnati?

X. Y. Z.

I presume you have reference to the Union Central Life Insurance building, which is 38 stories high. This is the tallest skyscraper this side of New York City.

Dear Miss Wise—Have you a bit of space in your column to spare an extremely happy wife? We hear so much about unhappy ones that some of us may be afraid there is no other kind, which is a mistaken idea. My husband and I have been married for years and have two children who are in high school, and in all of our married life we have not (will anyone believe me?) had one single quarrel. We are as much in love with each other as on our wedding day, which is saying a mouthful. There has been many a time when we would have quarreled but for one of his spoken first words, because we have been angry more than once. But when we were inclined to speak harsh words, we have held them back, even though it required almost biting the tongue off to do so. Hard? I'll inform this dear old globe it's hard, but I have learned from experience that one's temper and tongue, the easier it comes, My husband is as faithful, thoughtful and love-like as during our courtship. Our home is very, very happy, and our children are obedient, respectful and affectionate. Am I not a lucky, lucky woman? I am sure that if more husbands and wives would follow our receipt for happiness, they would find the same love and joy that has remained with my husband and I through the years. Don't forget to do kindly acts for each other and don't ever speak harshly. If you cannot speak kindly, keep silent until you can think when you both feel better, talk the trouble over, if trouble still remains, and most likely you will laugh where before you would have quarreled. The law of love is unselfishness. Am I not right, Miss Wise?

Get Out of My Way, Get Out of My Way.

"Mother Goose," said the Riddle Lady next day when the crowd had gathered in Riddle Town to hear the next riddle, "I don't want you to get out of my way today. Will you please not?"

"Is it about me?" asked Mother Goose in surprise.

"Not exactly," laughed the Riddle Lady, and then saying "Excuse me," she whispered something into Mother Goose's ear. Then Mother Goose laughed, and the Riddle Lady laughed, and they both laughed.

"Go right ahead," declared Mother Goose, winking at Nancy. "Don't mind me."

"Now for the riddle," said the Riddle Lady. "I suppose you are all tired waiting."

"Get out of my way, get out of my way," doesn't everyone know that it's sweeping day?

I rush and I run and I spread out my skirt, And shoo from my feet every wee scrap of dirt.

"I live in the corner beside the back door, I never sit down, I just stand on the floor, When I spy muddy footprints, or bread crumbs, or dust, Then out I go rushing, it just seems I must."

"I'm very old-fashioned—I've simply no style, And I'm quite a home body—but once in a while—"

An audience, appreciative and enthusiastic, enjoyed the story and the riddle. The Riddle Lady then said, "The answer is: 'Sweeping day.'"

MATCH, GASOLINE, AUTO DAMAGED

A Studebaker touring car owned by George Baisden, East Portsmouth, was slightly damaged shortly after seven o'clock Tuesday night when it ran into the rear of 1010 Gallia street, where it had been parked shortly before by the owner's son, L. M. Baisden. The blaze, which is believed to have originated from a leaking vacuum feed system, was partly smothered with a couple of buckets of ashes and use of chemicals by the two fire companies, which responded to a call finished the job. After discovering a leak in the vacuum tank, Baisden struck at match to locate it and the gasoline ignited and only prompt work prevented serious damage to his machine, which he said was not insured.

POLITICS

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: It's all very well for Congressman Charles G. Keene now that he has come out flat-footed like for President Coolidge, to say he was ever that way. His critics will not be silenced. They claim they have had him down "black and white" since only a few days after Mr. Coolidge succeeded to his high post. At that time, even Democrats, who have been liberal in their caustic comments, urged that the President be given a chance, while it stands in the records that Keene gave out an interview in which he said the people of his district, "next to a home candidate," would prefer Hiram Johnson. The Californian was praised as a man "whose progressivism is pleasing to the rank and file." Johnson, it was then said, "would be a safe, dependable and able Executive." In the latest statement Mr. Coolidge was all these things and more, too, indicating that nearer range in Washington or clearer vision have caused a slight orientation in the viewpoint of the Sixth District man. Now, these things are told merely to keep the record straight. Keene has a right to shift, same as any other politician, but it did give joy to the fellows in his home district to watch his agility. But they do say his change has not caused abandonment of the plans to give him primary opposition. Watch the Sixth!

PROGRAM ON INCOME TAXES NOT DECIDED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—The way was practically cleared today for revision of the income tax rates by house ways and means committee but Republican members in conference failed to map out a course to pursue against the united stand of Democrats for higher surtaxes than those recommended by Secretary Mellon. Clearing up some of the other sections of the bill, the committee upheld Mr. Mellon's proposed rate of 25 per cent for reductions on earned income but changed materially his suggestions for a board of tax appeals.

Approval was given for creation of such a board to hear all contested cases between the internal revenue bureau and taxpayers but the board was taken entirely out of the jurisdiction of the treasury department when the president was given power to appoint the board members instead of the treasury secretary. A motion to have the appointments confirmed by the senate was defeated.

DE WOLF HOPPER'S FIFTH WIFE GETS DECREE OF DIVORCE

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—The fifth matrimonial venture of DeWolf Hopper, musical comedy star, ended in failure today when Mrs. Elsie F. Hopper, known on the stage as "Hedda Hopper," was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce and custody of her seven year old son, William, by Supreme Court Justice Van Sicken, in Queens county. She was granted 30 per cent of income, with the stipulation that the amount at no time be smaller than $50.

The divorce suit, started in February 1922, charged infidelity specifying misconduct at Pelham, N. Y., Boston, and New York City.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Kazee Guilty; Fined

Edward Kazee, former bartender at the Dan Jarrell soft drink parlor on Chillicothe street near Eleventh, was found guilty of selling a half pint of moonshine when he was given a hearing in municipal court Tuesday and Judge W. H. Sprague handed him a fine of $300 and costs. Kazee was arrested January 26 after police had found two young men who readily told where they obtained their supply. Jesse Stevens, one of the two young men, was the main witness for the state. Special Prohibition Officer Lemma testified he took the bottle out of Stevens' pocket after his arrest. Attorney Horace Small defended Kazee.

Busses to Replace Street Cars In Akron

AKRON, O., Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—That street cars which have furnished the mode of transportation here for 25 years will be supplanted by busses when the present franchise expires Thursday midnight, appeared to be a certainty today. After Mayor D. C. Rybolt informed city council today that he is prepared to motorize the city, beginning Friday, the councilmen voted almost unanimously to stand on the city's order to the Northern Ohio Traction & Light company, that unless it continues to operate at five cent fare with free transfers, it must remove its equipment. The company demands a seven cent fare or four tickets for 25 cents with free transfers. Mayor Rybolt has notified several owners and operators of bus systems with whom the city has been negotiating for several weeks, to have their machines here tomorrow, so the drivers may familiarize themselves with the territory they are to traverse. A five cent fare will be charged.

DONAHEY DENIES CHARGES

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—Governor Donahey on the witness stand in federal court yesterday, denied that charges against Adolph Unger, then mayor of Tiffin, Ohio, accused by residents of that city of being implicated in a liquor conspiracy, "were kicked out of the back door of the state house." Governor Donahey was testifying in the government's conspiracy case against Unger and other residents of Tiffin who have been on trial in United States court for a week. Accompanied by R. P. McDonald, state prohibition commissioner, Governor Donahey came to Toledo this morning. "I found no particular laxity in law enforcement on Unger's part, but I did find charges relative to conspiracy to violate the liquor laws in the affidavits which were filed before me," Governor Donahey testified. "I transferred these charges to state prohibition commissioner McDonald."

In Federal Court Governor Donahey said he gave orders to have the charges transferred to the federal court here. In a letter, which the governor testified he wrote to Unger on August 15, 1923, he said he found no charges of laxity in enforcing the law but that the charges were of a conspiracy nature, which should be handled by the federal government.

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are really always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. It states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and causes food fermentation; that our stomachs are like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea. It tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a chargeful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effecting, and furthermore to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass from the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with excellent results.—Advertisement.

Sgt. Phil Keim of the Chillicothe police force is in Portsmouth attending the trial of Wm. H. West, now in progress at the court house. The Chillicothe police official has been on the desk for many years, and has a wide acquaintance here. He is also the official recorder of any police officer in this section of Ohio. In addition to being police day sergeant, Keim is also secretary of the Eagles' Lodge, which has a large membership in Chillicothe, and clerk to Mayor Addison P. Minshall, added to which is also the title and duties of the clerk of police court.

Dog Owners Get Last Warning From Sheriff

Sheriff Harry M. Dunham, yesterday, issued a final warning to dog owners that all dogs must be wearing tags by Feb. 1st. The sheriff extended the time limit from Jan. 1 to Jan. 31 because of conditions of some roads which made it impossible for people in some parts of the county to obtain the tags, he said last night, and Jan. 31 is the last day of grace. "There have been fifteen hundred fewer tags sold this year than last," the sheriff said, "and we are checking up the lists. The law will be enforced."

At a meeting of the newly appointed Boxing Commission held last night in Louis Herder's office a permit was issued to the Sportsman's Athletic Club to hold a boxing match in Brushart Hall Monday night, February 4. There will be four bouts and indications are that they will be witnessed by a large crowd. The headliners are Shifty Rambo of this city and Billy Thorpe of Dayton.

Millions of Fish Put In Ohio Streams

COLUMBUS, Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—Prior to the annual dinner of the League of Ohio Sportsmen here tomorrow night, Director of Agriculture Charles V. Truax today gave out a statement reviewing the activities of the fish and game department during the year just closed. He reported that streams and lakes in 66 of the 88 counties had been restocked with fish from the inland hatcheries and Lake Erie, the total distribution being 3,319,788 fish, an advance of 220,655 over 1922. He also told of the work of the fish hatcheries and of the completion of the Defiance hatchery, the largest in the state, to be used exclusively for propagation of small mouthed bass in northern Ohio. The statement said 52,000 pheasant eggs had been distributed at a cost of $23 per one hundred compared with a cost of $32 per hundred last year. Revenue from hunters' licenses jumped from $350,004.83 to $380,545.21. Truax said at least one and probably two new fish hatcheries will be built this year.

Davis Says Donahey Has Failed To Keep Single Election Promise

CLEVELAND, Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—Charging that Governor Donahey has failed to fulfill a single promise made in his campaign and has increased rather than reduced the cost of government, former Governor Harry J. Davis last night severely arraigned the administration in a speech on "The State Administration" at the McKinley banquet of the Tippecanoe club here tonight. "The former chief executive also praised the reorganization of state government brought about during his term of office. He did not, however, give any definite indication as to whether he would again be a candidate. The alleged unfulfilled promises were set forth as follows: Davis quoting frequently from the Donahey campaign speeches: "The Unfulfilled Promises: That 'no attempt' was made to repeal the reorganization law, although it was promised that 'every bit that's not in the interest of the taxpayer' would be destroyed. That under Donahey annual cost of state government increased $226,462.11 in the face of promises to reduce it. That the Democratic administration had failed to build $4,000 per mile roads as promised and had constructed 406 miles of road last year as compared with 1,000 miles during the first year of Davis' regime. That members of the state utilities commission had not been 'fired' as promised. That more prisoners had been freed from the penitentiary than ever before, many being used at the state house and at the governor's mansion. Davis also charged that the girls' industrial school at Delaware was in a 'disgraceful situation' and that Governor Donahey's attitude had been one of 'utter indifference toward the public.'"

Men's Class Boost For King

The Loyal Men's class of First Christian have been gradually working toward a goal of 140 for some time and they expect to go over it Sunday. With Mr. King, an attorney from Wellston who also happens to be one of the most popular Bible school teachers in that city, will present the lesson, and his reputation for teaching in such an entertaining and instructive way as to hold the attention will no doubt help to boost the attendance.

The Loyal Young Men and the Loyal Sons, two other adult men's classes, will have opportunity to boost their attendance for Sunday and they have promised to do it. Aside from the attendance effort, there is to be some special unlooked for features on the program that will be interesting. Always, when a little variety is added it helps to spice up the big school. Supt. A. P. Haight of the adult department has been assured by every class that they would put the thing over in grand style. Everybody's working.

An Open Letter To The Public Of This City

Read!!

Dear People:—

Our object in addressing this general letter to the people of this city is to take them back of the scenes, and to explain the reason for the February Furniture Sale which we are about to inaugurate.

Every store has certain fixed overhead expenses, such as rent, light, heat, office and clerical salary, etc., regardless of the amount of business transacted during any particular period.

February would be a quiet month at our store, as well as a great many other stores, unless some particular inducement was made to the buying public to do their buying during the month of February instead of waiting for several months later.

We are not intent to just sit back and do a normal amount of business during the month of February. We are more desirous of doing an increased volume of business even at a lesser amount of profit.

That briefly is the reason for this sale which we will announce in more complete detail in tomorrow night's paper. Don't forget to look for our advertisement tomorrow night. We promise you that it will be well worth your while to study this advertisement carefully. It will offer a buying opportunity of a most unusual character, and everyone who takes advantage of it will be practicing genuine economy.

Remember that our convenient credit system will be available to you during this sale as well as any other time.

Respectfully yours,

SAMUEL Levi & Co.

TO ENLARGE ANDERSON STORE

Two Stories To Be Added

While speaking before the Elks club Wednesday W. B. Anderson, president of The Anderson Bros. Co., made the announcement that his company was negotiating for a long lease on their present home at Third and Chillicothe streets, and that within a comparatively short time would begin the erection of two additional stories, which would give the store six stories and as Mr. Anderson said, would provide for the growing business for at least ten years to come.

Mr. Anderson's announcement came as a most happy surprise, for it means the solid mercantile company not only has faith in the future of Portsmouth, but believes that the present prosperity has come to stay. Incidentally it means that that part of Chillicothe street property is going to be stabilized in value. Mr. Anderson said that his company thought more of their present location now than they had for the past ten years.

The improvement which will be made is of even greater magnitude than one would glean from the short announcement made by Mr. Anderson. Not only will the main building, now four stories in height, be increased to six stories, but the red brick building, the ground floor of which is occupied as a shoe and men's furnishing department, will be practically razed, and a six story building of brick will conform to the present front will be erected, making the two buildings into one of a city block front and six stories in height, giving the concern about two acres of floor space.

The improvement will be made to the most minute detail. It will mean more elevators, adding of new departments and increasing of the floor space. The total cost of the improvements will aggregate in the neighborhood of one-quarter of a million dollars.

It will be pleasing news that a large auditorium will be erected on one of the floors thus affording a meeting place for clubs of various kinds, such as the Women's Club or any of the civic bodies of the city or county. The auditorium will be of sufficient size to accommodate a large crowd and will be at the service of those who need just such a meeting place. The aim of the Anderson Bros. Co. will be to provide service in any way possible, and this fact was in mind when the company decided upon the big improvements.

While it cannot be said, the company will have a roomy garden, nevertheless at least one of the elevators will be run to the roof, upon which will be rest rooms, a restaurant for employees, and rooms whereby the employees can meet for business or pleasure. This will be equipped with writing rooms and every possible convenience will be provided employees.

All the offices of the company will be transferred to the top floor. The credit department will also be moved to this vantage point.

It was stated that practically all the improvements will be completed by early fall, which means work will be started at a very early date. Architects are now preparing plans, and contracts will be awarded just as soon as possible. The company has been guaranteed by prospective contractors the work can be finished this year, and when it is once started, it will be pushed with all haste. The announcement of the improvement is a big item to Portsmouth, for it will mean not only one of the most beautiful department stores in this part of the state, but an addition to Portsmouth's appearance in that section of the city.

One fine thing about the proposition will be that business at the big store will not be interfered with while the improvement is being made.

F. W. RICKEY FACES MURDER CHARGE

Is Sequel To Fatal Shooting Affray In Monroe, Michigan

MONROE, MICH., January 30.—(By The Associated Press)—A Federal prohibition agent, today was charged with the murder in connection with the death of Philip Kalb, in a raid on a house here on January 2. The shooting of Kalb was the result of a gun battle in which members of the state police and Federal agents are alleged to have participated.

Federal prohibition Officer Rickey, according to a statement he made in Monroe after the shooting, he was among the squad that swooped down on the Kalb home, but he strenuously denied firing the fatal shot.

According to Officer Rickey, he was in charge of a squad of nine men who made the raid on a "wet nest" about 18 miles from Monroe, or 60 miles from Detroit, the visit being ordered by a divisional chief of the Federal prohibition department. "Of the nine men only one remembers hearing a shot," Mr. Rickey said. He says he was with four men who came across the body in a rear room of the house. He also reports two guns were found in the house, one of them having only five loaded shells and an empty one in it.

The officer claims that three stills, 81 barrels of mash in seven casks, and 85 gallons of whiskey were found in the Kalb home where seven were arrested. In another raid a short distance from the Kalb home three foreigners made their escape in an automobile.

The agent said that in a house directly across the road, 85 barrels of mash, five stills in operation, and 100 gallons of whiskey were taken. In another near-by farm house, Rickey said five stills and 72 barrels of mash were taken.

Referring to the inquest held after the shooting, Officer Rickey says that the mother of young Kalb claimed that it was a short fellow who killed her son and that she picked out two other officers as the ones whom she thought fired the shot before she finally selected him as the gun-user.

MINISTERS ATTENTION

There will be a meeting of the ministers of the churches, recently co-operating in the religious canvass of the city, at the United Brethren church on Friday afternoon at 8 o'clock sharp. This meeting is called for the purpose of making copies of the names and addresses on the co-operating cards. It has been found impracticable to make mimeograph copies of these names for the several churches. The ministers are requested to come prepared to take off their own copies. Secretaries or laymen may be enlisted to help in this work if any minister desires to use them at this time. If any minister cannot be present on this date the cards will be left at the United Brethren church for a week or more until every minister has had a chance to make copies of such names as he desires to take. Each minister is requested, also, to bring with him all of the cards that have been turned in by canvassers since the meeting of last Monday. This call is issued under the direction of the general chairman.

Chinese Take To Modern Footwear

PEKING, January 30.—(By The Associated Press)—The encroachment of western civilization has revolutionized the shoe-making industry in Peking, according to the Chinese Economic Bulletin. When official shoes made of satin were in vogue among the well-to-do, and the poorer classes wore shoes made out of cotton cloth, the business was prosperous; but now the old-style shoes have been discarded for foreign-style leather shoes which are imported, or made by another class of artisans from Shanghai or other treaty ports. For this reason Peking shoe-makers are engaged almost entirely in making cheap footwear for the poorer classes.

Another industry affected is baking. Owing to a liking for foreign-style wafers, the business of Chinese bakeries is falling off. Bread is being used more and more. A few years ago, it is said, there were in Peking more than 400 bakeries turning out Chinese food, whereas today there are only 127.

Local Republicans Form a Coolidge Club

Attorney Russell K. McCurdy was elected president of a Coolidge-for-President Club, organized at a meeting of Republicans held Tuesday night in the office of Attorney George W. Sheppard, Royal Savings & Loan building, and the head of the new organization was authorized to name an advisory committee of seven members, to be composed of both women and men.

Other officers chosen included Ralph Ater, vice-president; Frank W. Moulton, secretary and Miss Florence Peterson, treasurer.

As the name indicates, the organization was formed with a view of furthering the candidacy of President Calvin Coolidge for the nomination of his party for president.

Chairman Edward Cunningham of the county Republican executive committee opened the meeting and stated that at the solicitation of state leaders the meeting had been called and an effort had been made to reach as many Republicans as possible for the first meeting. Mr. Cunningham commented upon the number present, and the fact that everyone seemed imbued with the idea that Coolidge was the man to nominate. He then called for suggestions.

Mr. George Matthews suggested that it might be well to effect only a temporary organization at the meeting and call another meeting for selection of permanent officers. Others took the view that it was better to get down to active work as soon as possible, and that with an organization much more could be accomplished. The latter view prevailed and the election of the above officers followed.

Attorney Harry W. Miller spoke briefly of the recent meeting at Columbus when Coolidge was endorsed by Ohio Republicans and then called upon Miss Emma Cramer a delegate, to give a report of what had been done.

Miss Cramer told of the enthusiasm for Coolidge, and also referred to the fact that the Republican women of the state were taking an increasing interest in elections and said that the Republican women undoubtedly would wield much influence at the coming election.

Composed of representative Republicans, the meeting enthusiastically voiced the opinion that Portsmouth and Scioto county would support Coolidge for re-election and return an old-time Republican majority at the polls next November.

Among those who attended the meeting last evening were: Russell S. Ketter, Jno. W. Hall, Roy H. Coburn, W. L. Dickey, J. Earl Chandler, E. W. Smith, Geo. M. Taylor, Leonard M. Johnson, Geo. Keller, Frank Bauer, H. B. Gilliland, Jno. B. Bennett, David P. Scott, Ralph B. Ater, Harry W. Miller, George W. Sheppard, J. R. Hooper, Geo. E. Matthews, E. E. Hickey, C. W. JOE JACKSON TELLS HIS STORY ABOUT "CROOKED SERIES"

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—(By Associated Press.)—Joe Jackson, former outfielder for the Chicago Americans, probably resumed the stand today in his suit against Chas. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, for back pay Jackson alleges accrued after the 1919 World Series baseball "scandal" resulted in him and several other players being expelled from organized baseball.

Comiskey and Harry Grabner, secretary of the Chicago team, also are expected to take the stand today.

Jackson testified yesterday that he hit the only home run in the 1919 series with two men on bases, accepted an error in the outfield without an error and denied that he played dishonestly in the 1919 series.

At that time, he said, he was rooming with pitcher Lefty Williams and declared that the team directly after the series Williams came into his room with two good sized envelopes. "Want one?" he said Williams asked him.

"What's in it?" I asked him.

"It's money, part of what I got from the eastern gamblers," Williams told me. "I said to him, 'You have a lot of nerve, you big bum! Baseball's my only means of making a living and what are you trying to do to me?'"

"He laid one of the envelopes on a table and next day I went down to see Comiskey about it," Grabner said. "I said to him, 'He doesn't want to see you.' I went home a day or so later and soon received a letter from Comiskey."

Jackson said he asked his wife to write Comiskey but on objections was not allowed to discuss the contents of Mr. Jackson's letter.

Dry Officers Busy In Pike County

WAVERLY, Ohio, January 30.—Conducting their work begun the latter part of last week, state prohibition officers Turner, Hutchinson and Baynham have made the mayor's office the busiest spot in town.

Monday morning at nine o'clock Donald Bush, of Beaver, was brought before the mayor and pleaded guilty to the charge of possession of intoxicating liquor. His case was continued until next Friday and he was released on bond. In the next case Ezra Bobst, of Beaver, was charged with selling the forbidden juice and, upon his plea of guilty, the case was continued until Friday. Frank Bines, also of Beaver, entered a plea of guilty to charge of selling for the sale of "moonshine." He was fined $100 and costs. He paid up and was released.

The men in the cases above were caught in connection with the raid made in Beaver last Friday. Affidavits against them were secured from the men arrested last week. The moonshine business has tumbled down like a house of blocks in Beaver. Starting with the arrest and fining of Oscar Oddude, arrests were made right and left. Martin Ehrman was caught in the drug-net and pleaded guilty to the charge of possession, his trial being continued until Friday. The liquor business of Beaver has vanished, but the fountain of supply is still uncaptured. When prohibition men went to the home of Ben Murphy, of near Beaver, located in community known as "Scratch Hollow," they found everything designed for the manufacture of "white mule," but the still and Mr. Murphy. Neither of them can be located. Barrels that had been used for mash were upside down. A cement fireplace upon which the still had been placed, was left intact. Officers say from the appearance of the fireplace the still must have been nearly a hundred-gallon capacity.

George Newman, of Jackson township, faced two charges, possession and selling. He pleaded not guilty and was released on bond. His case being continued until next Friday. On that day a state attorney will be here to represent the state in the cases.

This is by far the largest number of liquor violations ever to be awaiting trial before the mayor of Waverly.

One home near Waverly was also searched, and samples of wine, cider were taken for a chemical analysis to determine the amount of alcohol the liquors contained.

MRS. GARNETT WINTZ.

Huntington, W. Va.

Mrs. Garnett Wintz, Route No. 4, Box 100, Huntington, W. Va., in telling of her experiences with Kadiok says:

"I have been a sufferer from rheumatism since childhood, and that covers a long time, as I am now 36 years of age; I have spent a great deal of money, with doctors, but never overcome the trouble; occasionally the rheumatism was so bad that I could not stand on my feet at all and was practically helpless. I am the mother of five children and have been through a lot of suffering and misery."

"For some time past I have been taking Kadiok, and my condition today is better than it has been in years. I have been entirely free from rheumatism for some weeks. I have a good appetite; sleep well and my general condition is improved in every way. If my statement will influence other sufferers to try Kadiok, I feel sure they will feel as grateful towards it as I do."

Kadiok can be obtained in Portsmouth at Fisher & Streich Drug Store.

Quarrel Over Divorce Ends In Morgue

AKRON, O., Jan. 30.—(By the A. P.)—Pursuing his wife, Mrs. Bertha E. Funk, 32, into a drug store in the heart of Akron's fashionable west side commercial district, George R. Funk, 35, shot her through the heart and then killed himself with the same weapon last night. Half dozen customers and clerks witnessed the double killing. The Funks were widely known here. Health and Vitality for Women

Health and Vitality can be yours without narcotics or drugs. Keeping well is largely a matter of keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to women as evidenced by headaches, nervousness, dragging down pains, backache and irritability. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions and restoring sick and ailing women to health. It surely pays every suffering woman to try it.

LOOKING FOR BARGAINS

If you go up and down the stores of a city and inquire the cost of some special quality or grade of product, you will find considerable variations in the price. Some concerns will not specialize much on that particular line and cannot afford to make low prices on it. Others will have bought a large lot of that stuff and will be making a special drive to work it off.

Thus in every way the price on that article gets lower and lower in such a store, as Dr. Cone would say. Some stores buy more shrewdly than others and get the advantage of special bargains. Some keep close watch for job lots and odd quantities of goods.

Stores are constantly getting overstocked on some line, and they find it desirable to close out that stuff. So experience shows that the price at which articles sell is constantly varying.

How is the consumer to know which stores are selling a given article at the best figures? He might take his time and call around at the stores and inquire. That would take a great deal of effort and few people would have patience to do it. Probably after they had visited one or two stores, they would take the next offering made to them, regardless of the fact that if they had kept on inquiring they might have done better.

The only practical way for the public to find out what stores sell the cheapest on any given line of stuff is for the stores that have bargains to advertise them and for the public to read the advertising and take advantage of such special chances. That is just what is happening all the time. Advertising is the force that provides an information service by which the public learns of special opportunities, and is put in a position to get its supplies at minimum figures.

HIGHBROW AND LOWBROW

MAN expresses a preference for poetry or philosophy and is called "highbrow" by those considered "lowbrow" by the man who prefers poetry and philosophy. And so wages the eternal battle between highbrowism and lowbrowism.

Thought and opinion should be as free and unbridled as speech and opportunity. There is no conceivable reason why the man who reads classical literature should be ridiculed and derided by those great numbers who think an evening is better spent in scurrying through the pages of desert and apartment house romances, and the latter should not be subjected to the scathing "lowbrow" by those who term "highbrow." Every man to his own taste.

There is no doubt that the descriptives, "highbrow" and "lowbrow" are being grossly misused and misconstrued today by all concerned. Rightly used they are effective and truthful adjectives and provocative of much good. Erroneously employed they are destructive and capable of much undoing.

The true highbrow tends to priggishness, precocity and pretention. He deals in abstractions without reason and in affection only. "Words, Words, Words," that immortal vituperation on the Congressional Record, is as applicable to the sententious "highbrow."

This definition of "highbrowism" is no vindication or defense of the lowbrow attitude which sneers at fine things in literature, art and thought. The lowbrow can be as stupidly superior as the highbrow. Call no man "lowbrow" who recognizes genius and genius' beneficence to mankind. "Highbrow" has no part in the make-up of men and women who love art for art's sake and it is unfair to call lowbrow those who find healthy pastime in reading the lighter and more popular forms of writing.

In offering to let the senate select another peace plan from those submitted and pay $100,000 to the winner, Mr. Bok will to some appear to be perfectly reckless with money.

In a Chicago retail shoe exhibit there are 15,000 different styles of woman's footwear. Now we know why milady changes her mind so often. The shoemaker tempts her.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. McINTIRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The 11:34 is known as an "egg" and those who for Great Neck—dubbed "Gotta" by Ring Lardner—is a train filled with grotesque faces. Great Neck is a theatrical and literary suburb on Long Island. The homes there are mostly owned or rented by actors and writers.

Every player tries to catch the 11:34 at night and is usually forced to dash from his dressing room without removing his makeup. One sees dashing juveniles with curled-up cheeks, blackened eyebrows and powdered foreheads.

There are youths with sideburns unremoved, young men with old gray faces, ingenues bright with paint, etc. They all know each other and there are few passengers outside of their profession. It is an unwritten law on the 11:34 that no one may discuss the stage.

Too many, it seems, delighted in telling how good they were and in the ecstatic glow passed their station. So they play bridge or mah-jong. Great Neck apparently has all the virtues of a peaceful cross roads town and none of the vices of Hollywood.

There has never been a complaint there for midnight carrying-on. The town not so long ago dismissed several of its policemen. They had nothing to do—nobody to arrest. It was a vermal freshness and as Willie Collier said is out in the clearing far from the "AI Woods."

In one block there resides Gene Buck, John Golden, Scott Fitzgerald, old Willie Collier, Grant Mitchell and Lowell Sherman. To the average layman the actor lives in another world. Yet here is a community where men build chicken coops, paint fences and go to the post office after the mail.

The women talk over the back fence, borrow cups of sugar and do their darning at the front window. Perhaps the only difference between Great Neck and the average small town is that the inhabitants sleep until noon. There is no stir in the early morning.

The customer who is easy bait is known as a "push-over." And those who buy at the first solicitation are "cream puffs." The tough prospect

At a tea party recently a prodigy was introduced by her mother.
"This is my little daughter," said the proud mamma. "Isn't she a bright little soul?"
Then, to Miss Bevan's astonishment, the coy child inquired, "What was that clever thing I said yesterday, mamma?"

Maid—No, sir.
"Aw, well, I'll leave my card so that she'll know I called."

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
FRIENDS
BY BERTON BRALEY
MOST any decent sort of folk will help you when you're strapped and broke; Most anybody that you know will treat you pretty, white and fair if they're convinced you're on the square; But—get what I am driving at?—A friend does something more than that.
A FRIEND doesn't have to weigh you much To test your honesty and such; A friend knows faults and virtues, too, And takes them as a part of you. He tries to keep you out of trouble, But when you're in—why, that goes double. And all your follies he endures Because he is a friend of yours.
A FRIEND is one with whom you sit And do not need to talk a bit; Who needs no chatter to reveal Approximately how you feel. Who, when your secret heart's unfurled, Won't rush right out and tell the world. Who's not afraid to step right in And tell you what a boob you've been, But whose devotion it won't jar However much a fool you are.
DON'T you believe the birds who fret That loyal friends are seldom met. Rare is the man who hasn't got Someone who loves him quite a lot. Whether he's any good or not, Someone who's faithful to the end, Through thick and thin—and that's a Friend!
